

Florida Highwaymen Artist James Gibson

Friends of the Library is offering a free presentation and art exhibit by Florida Highwaymen Artist James Gibson. Mr. Gibson is one of the few surviving members of the original group of 26 African-American Florida landscape artists who came to be known as "The Highwaymen". He will present many of his paintings and give a talk on his experiences and history with the Highwaymen.

Thursday, May 18, 2017
6:00 pm. Burns Hall,
St. Peters Episcopal Parish
801 Atlantic Avenue

The presentation will be followed by a "Roadkill Grill" by Callahan Barbecue. There will be a cash bar before and during the event with wine and beer. Paintings will be available for purchase at the event.

Reservations are required as seating is limited.

To make a reservation, stop by the library or call 904-530-6500 ext.1.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Fernandina Beach Library and is free and open to the public.
